Specifiche per la pubblicazione del bando di concorso XXXVI ciclo

LAW &SOCIAL CHANGE: THE CHALLENGES OF TRANSNATIONAL REGULATION

Tipologia di procedura selezionata: PROCEDURA UNICA

Descrizione del dottorato

titolo (ing.): Law and social change: the challenges of transnational regulation descrizione (ing.): The PhD program has an international character and is established on the basis of agreement among various European universities. The primary working language will be English; the learning and teaching activities of the Program will take place in the several partner institutions. The aim of the program is to deepen the legal questions related to the crisis of state sovereignty, to the disruption of the traditional system of sources of law, as well as to the regulation of legal relationships and phenomena having transnational character. The research topics specified in this call will be regarded as particularly important.
