MASTER IN HUMAN DEVELOPMENT, FOOD SECURITY AND SUSTAINABILITY

ACADEMIC YEAR 2023/2024
DEADLINE 30 APRIL 2023

APPLY FOR THE MASTER IN HUMAN DEVELOPMENT, FOOD SECURITY AND SUSTAINABILITY: tools for analysis and action

Are you interested in improving your knowledge and understanding of human development, food security, empowering rural people and sustainability?

Would you like to learn new techniques, frameworks and tools that can help you to analyse the complex nature of poverty?

Are you passionate about ensuring that the most vulnerable people are actively involved in developmental decision-making? Are you attracted by the prospect of interacting with students from around the world and lecturers with both academic and field experience?

Then the Master in Human Development, Food Security and Sustainability based at the Economics Department, University of Roma Tre, might be the best option for you!

The application form for the 2023/2024 academic session is now open and you can access it here:

Deadline for applications: 30 April, 2023

After this deadline, the Council of the Master will review and assess the applications received. In case there are still places available, applicants who have missed the initial deadline will still be able to apply until 31st May 2023.
