

FIA GIRLS ON TRACK CAREER TALKS COME TO ROME

Want to know what it's like to work in motorsports?

Find out at our FIA Girls on Track In-Community Career Talks!

We are looking for girls and young women to join us for a morning of career talks, discovering the incredible opportunities and career paths within the sport!

Who:

Girls and young women interested in learning more about careers in Motorsport

When:

Thursday 13th July
 11:30am - 13:00pm

Where:

Roma Tre University
Dipartimento di
Ingegneria Industriale,
Elettronica e Meccanica
 Sala Conferenze
 Via Vito Volterra, 62, 00146
 Roma

Cost:

Free of charge!

What to expect:

If you're considering a career in motorsports, or just want to learn more, our Rome FIA Girls on Track In-Community Career Talk is something you don't want to miss!

Listen to motorsport experts giving their best advice and insights on their roles. Learn more about the various roles in the industry and how you can get your foot in the door. Don't forget to come prepared with your biggest questions –our experts will be ready to answer!

