

13-14 OCTOBER 2023, UNIVERSITY OF ROMA TRE
DOCTORAL WORKSHOP
LAW AND SOCIAL CHANGE PROGRAM

friday 13

Aula 4 - Edificio Tommaseo. Via Ostiense, 139

9:00 - Welcoming

9:15 - Introduction

Organizing committee, Directors of the L&SC Program

10:00 – 11:15 - Freedom of Speech, Media and Courts

Chairs: Livia Siclari, Prof. Giorgio Resta

Arron McArdle and Nils Langensteiner (Université du Luxembourg)
Regulating Pornography from a European Human Rights Perspective – Positive obligations for States and the limits of regulatory action in light of ECtHR jurisprudence

Daria Bulgakova (Uppsala University)
The understanding of doxing along with defamation

Michał Szudrowicz (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań)
Preserving judicial independence – how to evaluate judges' media activity?

11:30 – 12:45 - Liabilities

Chairs: Benedetta Rinaldi Ferri, Prof. Vincenzo Zeno Zencovich

Federico Di Silvestre (University of Roma Tre)
Attempts to redefine the concept of corporate purpose and consequences on directors' liability

Aleksandra Lisak (Institute of Law Studies Polish Academy of Sciences in Warsaw)
Dependency claims of a fatal accident from motor third party liability insurance

Filip Gołędzinowski (University of Warsaw)
A family foundation - a new legal person in the Polish legal system as a way of planning the succession of a business. Analysis of the new regulations against the background of the laws of selected European countries

13:00 – 14:00: Brunch at Biondo Tevere, Via Ostiense, 178

14:00 – 15:15 - Sustainability meets Law

Chairs: Noemi Calidori, Dr. Morgan Eleanor Harris

Beatrice Bichi Ruspoli Forteguerra (University of Roma Tre)
Power Purchase Agreement: from an obstacle to liberalization to promoting renewables

Paola Francesca Rizzi (University of Bari)
Common Data Space for Agriculture and Mobility: a key tool for the EU "Big Agri-Data" governance

Ziwei XU (Université du Luxembourg)
An Insight into the Need for Introducing Legislation for Social Enterprises and the Ecosystem of Social Enterprises: In China

15:30-16:45 - Comparative Law and pluralism in context

Chairs: Livia Siclari, Prof. Giorgio Pino

Davide Sili (University of Roma Tre)
Indigenous tradition and reconciliation in the Canadian jurisprudence: a critical analysis of Beaver v. Hill (2019); R. v. Desautel (2021); Yahey v. British Columbia (2021)

Walter Alberto Abalo Navia (University of Roma Tre)
Observing Legal Pluralism(s)

Pawel Grobelny (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan)
Legal instruments in Polish law enabling the fight against advertising chaos in public space compared to similar regulations in other European countries

16:45 – 17:30 - Conclusions

18:30 - Dinner at Saulo, Via Ostiense, 251

saturday 14

Aula 5 - Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza. Via Ostiense, 159

10:00 – 11:15 - Digital Transformation of Law

Chairs: Walter Alberto Abalo Navia, Dr. Matija Zgur

Marinos Emmanouil Kalpakos (Université du Luxembourg)
An Analysis of the AI Act's Potential in equitably Safeguarding Fundamental Rights and Promoting AI Innovation

Anastasiia Liulina (University of Groningen)
Towards creating admissibility criteria for digital open-source evidence of international crimes

Igor Gontarz (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań)
Axiology of automatic decision-making in public administration

11:30 - Roundtable

Organizing Committee

Walter Alberto Abalo Navia, PhD Student - walteralberto.abalonavia@uniroma3.it

Noemi Calidori, PhD Student - noemi.calidori@uniroma3.it

Benedetta Rinaldi Ferri, PhD Student - benedetta.rinaldiferri@uniroma3.it

Livia Siclari, PhD Student - livia.siclari@uniroma3.it