YSI-EAEPE SUMMER SCHOOL 2025: REIMAGINING MIGRATION ECONOMICS THROUGH A PLU- RALIST LENS

30 JUNE - 02 JULY 2025
VIA SILVIO D'AMICO 77,
00145 ROME (ITALY)

The 18th EAEPE Summer School explores migration through a pluralist, heterodox lens, offering a space to engage critically with the mainstream of models of migration economics. It examines migration as a complex, multidimensional process shaped by structural, historical, and cultural forces. Here, participants will have the opportunity to learn from renowned scholars in the field and receive feedback on their work.

Participation - Many Research Areas are relevant: Social Economics, Public Economics, Migration Economics, Development Economics, Macroeconomics, Labour Economics, Urban and Regional Economics, Economic History, Evolutionary Economics, Comparative Economics, and the impact of migration on Innovation and Industrial Policy.

Application - PhD and master students can apply at the following link: <https://fs8.formsite.com/CNZLjX/e6x7pe0im6/index>

No Summer School Fee - There are not fees for participation, lunch will be provided. Participants are requested to be EAEPE members. For students and those with a gross personal income less than 10,000€ per year a Special Rate Membership is available, at the price of 25€. More information here.
