Lecture Architecture and the City

Conversazione con Margherita Ermani e domande dal pubblico

Bob Allies founded Allies and Morrison in 1984, an architecture and urbanism practice based in London. He has established a design approach that finds enjoyment in simplicity, technical rigour and longevity. An architect, urbanist and teacher, he is a widely published author and editor and frequently lectures on architecture and the city. Bob has shaped significant masterplans, from King's Cross to London's Olympic Legacy, from Greenwich Peninsula to Brent Cross Cricklewood.
