15TH EAEPE SUMMER SCHOOL “LABOUR AND WELFARE IN THE POST COVID-19 ERA”

4-8 JULY 2022
VIA SILVIO D'AMICO 77,
00145 ROME (ITALY)

Local organisers: Pasquale Tridico and Sebastiano Fadda

The EAEPE Summer School is open to PhD students and early-career researchers working in particular in the field of institutional and evolutionary analysis, with a special focus this year on labour economics and welfare, and the impact of Covid-19.

Lecturers will address these topics from different perspectives and approaches. In the spirit of pluralism characteristic of the EAEPE, many Research Areas are relevant: Social Economics, Public Economics, Macroeconomics, Labour Economics, Effective Demand, Economic History, Evolutionary Economics, Comparative Economics, Industrial Policy, Innovation and Technology, etc. More generally, contributions from all fields using institutional, multidisciplinary approaches are welcome. Lectures by internationally renowned scholars will be given in the morning, while afternoons will be devoted to presentations by advanced PhD students and early-career researchers, who will thus benefit from comments and suggestions from experts in the field.

No Summer School Fee. Participants are requested to be EAEPE members. For PhD students and those with a gross personal income less than 10,000€ per year a Special Rate Membership is available, at the price of 25€. More information here.

Deadline for application: 6 June 2022

Successful candidates will be notified by 10 June 2022

PhD students can apply by uploading their CV using the online submission form.

Advanced PhD students and early-career researchers who would like to present their work can submit their proposal or paper along with their CV using the online submission form. For information and contact: summerschool@eaepe.org
