

2024 ROMA TRE INTERNATIONAL DOCTORAL WORKSHOP

3 OCTOBER - SALA DEL CONSIGLIO - UNIVERSITÀ ROMA TRE

09:00 - 10:00 - OPENING

09:30- Introduction: Organizing Committee, Professor Giorgio Pino (Director of the L&SC Program)

09:45 - Formal greetings from Professor Antonio Carratta (Head of the Department of Law)

10:00 - 11:15 - THE LEGAL IMPACT OF AI

Chairs: Professor Simone Benvenuti and Guerino Biasucci

Áron Badinszky (ELTE Budapest)

Keeping the Pace with AI? Future Proofing Disruptive Regulation

Igor Gontarz (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań)

AI Act's Impact on Automated Public Administration

11:15 - 12:45 - THE DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION OF LAW

Chairs: Professor Fiona Macmillan and Livia Siclari

Sabrina Akram Ibrahim El Sabi (Università di Bari-Aldo Moro)

The Modernization of the Digital Vulnerable Consumer: Law Remedies in the Actual DSM

Andreas Kanakakis (Luxembourg University/Vrije Universiteit Brussel)

Introducing Digital Investigative Measures in Criminal Proceedings: The 'Double-Edged Sword'

Anastasia Vidaki (Vrije Universiteit Brussel)

Blockchain for Criminal Justice in the EU: An Opportunity or a Threat?

13:00 - 14:30 - LUNCH BREAK

14:30 - 15:45 - FREEDOM OF SPEECH, MEDIA AND COURTS

Chairs: Professor Giorgio Pino and Federico Bonito

Afroditi Paphanasopoulou (Vrije Universiteit Brussel)

The Role of Social Media Companies in Mitigating Disinformation and Protecting Freedom of Expression under the Digital Services Act: A Critical Analysis

Michal Szudrowicz (University of Poznań)

Communication Policy of Courts in Europe – A Comparative Analysis

Ophélie Sémiramis (University of Reims Champagne-Ardenne)

The Revival of Media Monopolies or the Dilution of Press Pluralism. The French Example in the Light of the Proposed Law on Audiovisual Reform

16:00 - 17:30 - LEGAL PERSPECTIVES ON SUSTAINABILITY AND ECONOMIC INTERESTS

Chairs: Professor Roberto Baratta and Beatrice Bichi Ruspoli

Federico Di Silvestre (Università Roma Tre)

States Liabilities under Climate Finance Obligations

Paola Francesca Rizzi (Università di Bari-Aldo Moro)

Giving Economic and Legal Value to Biodiversity: Direct and Indirect Measures in a Comparative Perspective

Grazia Bruzzese (University of Luxembourg)

When Sustainability Meets Pecuniary Interests - The Case of Greenwashing

Davide Sili (Università Roma Tre)

Green Patents and the Discipline of Patent Co-ownership in the U.S., a Critical Analysis

17:30 - 17:45 - DAY ONE CONCLUSIONS

20:00 - DINNER

4 OCTOBER, 9:00-14:00 - ROOM 5 - UNIVERSITÀ ROMA TRE

09:30 - 10:30 - TRANSNATIONAL LEGAL THEORY AND CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Chairs: Dr. Alba Lojo and Walter Alberto Abalo

Pierre-Emmanuel Rodriguez (Paris Nanterre / Reims Champagne-Ardenne)

German Legal Dogmatics and its Contribution to the "Scientificity" of Law. An Epistemological Analysis of a Law Creation and Application Process

Panagiotis Develekos (Law & Society Institute, Humboldt University of Berlin)

Realism or Realism(s)? Revisiting the Question of American Legal Realism's Theory of Law and Intellectual Coherence

10:45 - 12:15 - GLOBAL PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Chairs: Professor Palmisano and Walter Alberto Abalo

Felipe Carrera Aguayo (Università degli Studi di Palermo)

The Construction of Forced Global Migration as a Human Right: A Critical Approach from the International Law Perspective

Mercedes Malcomson (Birkbeck College)

Living with the Foreign Agents' Law: Legal Consciousness among Human Rights Defenders in Russia, 2012-22

Panagiotis Mavroudis (Birkbeck College)

Fairness, Solidarity, and Proportionality in Context: Aspects of Managerial Legal Thinking in European Immigration Policies

Federico Bonito (Università Roma Tre)

Judicial Dialogue and General Principles: The Reliance on Human Rights Standards by International Administrative Tribunals

12:30 - 13:00 - DAY TWO CONCLUSIONS

13:00 - 14:30 - LUNCH