Citazioni

«I have fought against white domination, and I have fought against black domination. I have cherished the ideal of a democratic and free society in which all persons live together in harmony and with equal opportunities. It is an ideal which I hope to live for and to achieve. But if needs be, it is an ideal for which I am prepared to die.»

Speech from the Dock quote by Nelson Mandela on 20 April 1964

«I cannot sell my birthright, nor am I prepared to sell the birthright of the people to be free. [...] What freedom am I being offered when I must ask for permission to live in an urban area? When I need a stamp in my pass to seek work? Or when my very South African citizenship is not respected?»

Nelson Mandela's response to the conditional offer of freedom made by P.W. Botha read by his daughter Zinzi on February 10th 1985

«Real leaders must be ready to sacrifice all for the freedom of their people»
